Is getting fit and eating better one of your new year's resolutions?
It's never too late to catch up on these goals – and you can get some help from experts in their fields – all in the heart of Spotswood Village.

With sessions kicking off as early as 6am, Super Movement offers a range of Pilates and fitness classes to build up core strength, fitness and overall flexibility. Book an appointment with Back It Up Osteopathy who helps clients restore optimal function and movement.

Avid bike riders can get their rides serviced by the friendly crew at Spoke 'n' Sprocket – get a free assessment and professional, friendly advice on keeping your bike in good nick.

With winter approaching, Michael who owns Better U Pharmacy has great advice on your health needs. Or, check out the Tiny Clinic where Chinese medicine practitioners will be able to offer advice and massage therapies to treat sore muscles.

All these fabulous businesses are just a short walk from Spotswood Village, easily available along Hudsons Road and surrounds. Or take the scenic Punt ferry.

Head over to the Our Hood Spotswood to keep up to date on these Spotswood Village traders.

Looking for something to do these school holidays in Melbourne's west? Treatment III is an ambitious public art exhibit celebrating the technology that's helped build Melbourne and the west.

As part of the exhibit, works by Linda Tegg, Robert Andrew and Zanna and around the Pumping Station at Scienceworks, Spotswood.

This exhibit has proven very popular, so don't miss your chance to see it. Grab a drink or bite around the corner at Grazeland or a number of other spots.

Scienceworks is a short 10min walk down Hudsons Road from Spotswood Village. You can also take a ferry to the Spotswood Jetty. On-site parking is also available.
