Public realm and reinstatement works Barwise Street, North Melbourne

Wednesday 7 June until September 2023

From Wednesday 7 June until September 2023, there will be public realm and reinstatement works on the northern side of Barwise Street.

What we are doing

- Setting up traffic control along Barwise Street and on the corner of Barwise and Laurens streets
- Temporarily reducing the width of the lanes on Barwise Street maintaining traffic movements with traffic controllers
- Undertaking drainage and services locating works with saw cutters, excavators, and non-destructive digging trucks in use
- Removing existing infrastructure and undertaking drainage installation works
- Installing driveways, kerbing and asphalt on the northern footpath on Barwise Street
- Constructing a dedicated asphalt pedestrian footpath on the northern side of Barwise Street
- Constructing a raised pedestrian pathway on Barwise Street at the intersection of Barwise and Laurens streets.

What to be aware of

- On Wednesday 7 June, a raised pedestrian asphalt pathway will be constructed at the entrance to Barwise Street. During these works, access to Barwise Street will be maintained with traffic controllers
- On Thursday 8 June, traffic barriers will be positioned on the northern side of Barwise Street with access to driveways and properties maintained
- The width of the westbound lane on Barwise Street will be temporarily reduced
- Traffic controllers will be on hand when required to maintain traffic and cyclist movements throughout the area

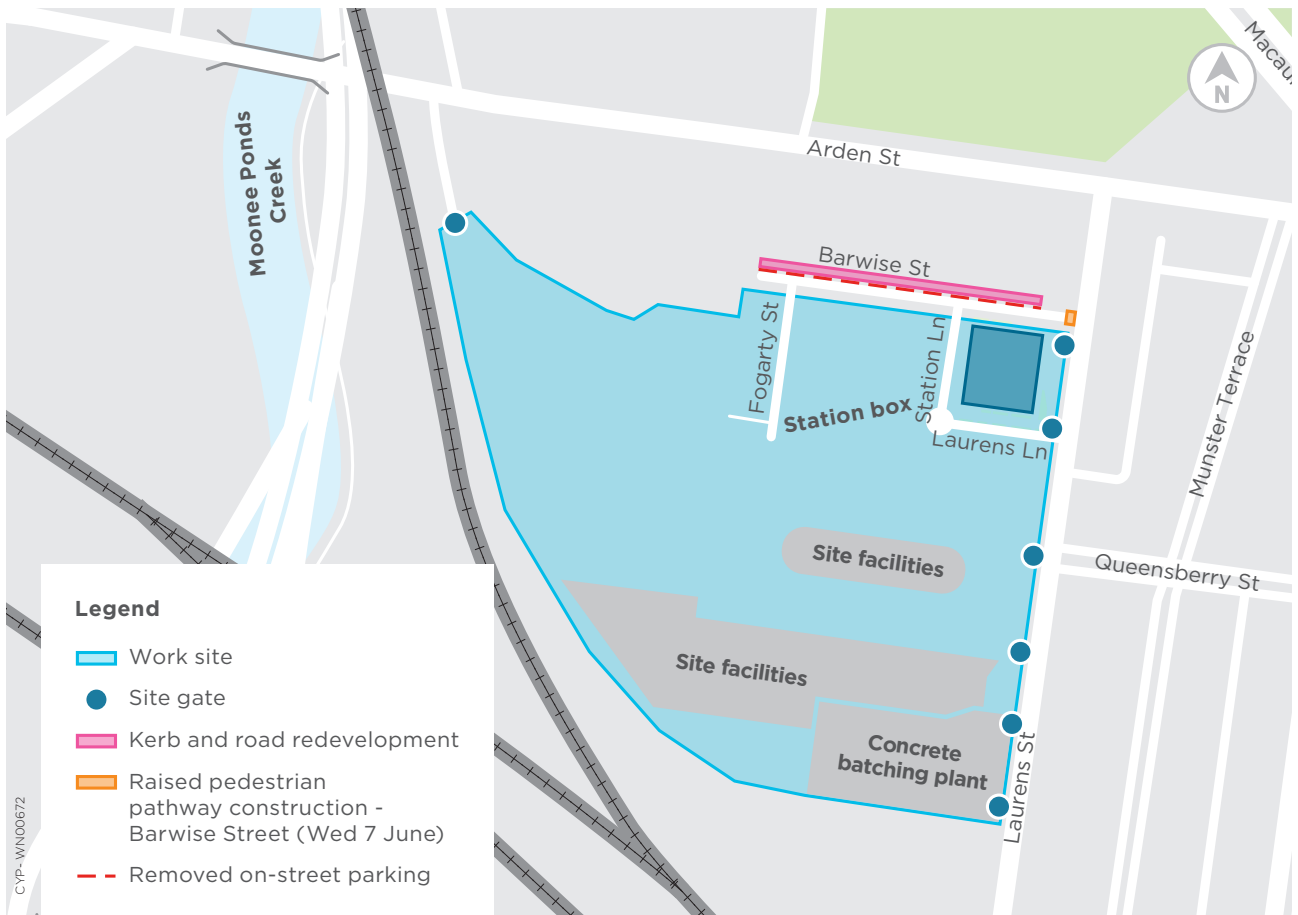

- Properties with driveways that may be impacted by these works will be provided further information closer to works commencing. The project will work with residents and businesses to minimise impacts and maintain access to properties
- To enable improved public transport, pedestrian and cyclist connections around the station precinct, on-street parking spaces and loading bays will be removed from the northern side of Barwise Street
- New on-street parking, accessible parking and loading bays will be established on Barwise Street in late 2023
- These works are expected to generate periods of medium to loud noise and will primarily be carried out during standard working hours (from 6am to 6pm Monday to Friday and Saturday 7am to 3pm).

When

- Construction works: Wednesday 7 June until September 2023
- Construction hours: 7am – 6pm Monday to Friday and 7am – 3pm Saturdays.
