Reinstatement and public realm works

Grattan Street west, between Flemington Road and Royal Parade

From Friday 24 November 2023 until late January 2024

The Parkville Station precinct is moving into the final phase of construction with reinstatement and public realm works underway.

Throughout the Parkville precinct, staged reinstatement and public realm works are ongoing until early 2024.

These works include service relocations, footpath, kerb and road pavement construction, traffic signal modifications, and the installation of bus stops, street furniture, lighting and landscaping.

Reinstatement and public realm works will take place up to property boundaries, including on footpaths and directly adjacent to building entrances. There will be changes to the way you move around the precinct during these works.

On the southern side of Grattan Street west, reinstatement and public realm works are expected to be complete on the westbound traffic lane and footpath by Friday 24 November.

Once complete, the next stage of reinstatement and public realm works will commence on the northern side of Grattan Street west, between Flemington Road and Royal Parade.

What we are doing

- Site establishment including installing traffic barriers, temporary fencing and signage around the perimeter of the work site
- Removing sections of the existing eastbound traffic lane, northern footpath, kerbs and existing infrastructure which includes non-destructive digging, excavating and saw cutting
- Installing new infrastructure including stormwater drainage, street lighting, traffic signals, and other underground services and utilities
- Landscaping works including installing street furniture such as benches, bollards, signage and bus stops
- Reconstructing the eastbound traffic lane, footpath, kerbs and road surface involving laying bluestone, asphalt and line marking.

What to be aware of

- The southern footpath on Grattan Street, adjacent the Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre, will re-open
- A section of the northern footpath on Grattan Street, in front of the Royal Melbourne Hospital, will temporarily close
- A temporary mid-block crossing will be established to facilitate access to the Royal Melbourne Hospital's emergency department, and for pedestrians to continue to Royal Parade
- The Grattan Street eastbound lane, between Flemington Road and Royal Parade/Elizabeth Street, will temporarily close
- The Grattan Street westbound lane will re-open to maintain hospital drop-off/pick-up and access for emergency services
- Vehicles will be able to travel westbound on Grattan Street from Elizabeth Street and turn left or right onto Flemington Road
- Emergency vehicle access to and from the Royal Melbourne Hospital will be maintained at all times
- Emergency vehicles will be able to travel eastbound on Grattan Street, between the Royal Melbourne Hospital emergency department ambulance exit, and Royal Parade
- Patient drop-off/pick-up and short-term parking will be maintained on the southern side of Grattan Street
- Patient pick-up/drop-off spaces for the Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre will remain available from the Elizabeth Street service lane
- Traffic management and signage will be in place to safely direct vehicles, cyclists and pedestrians around the work area
- Access to local hospitals, buildings and businesses will be maintained at all times
