Reinstatement and public realm works

Laurens Street, between Arden and Queensberry streets

Friday 21 July to late August 2023

From Friday 21 July until late August 2023, there will be public realm and reinstatement works on the eastern side of Laurens Street between Arden and Queensberry streets.

What we are doing

- Completing further reinstatement and public realm works on Laurens Street
- Installing construction barriers and temporary fencing on the eastern side of Laurens Street between Queensberry and Arden streets
- Removing and resurfacing a section of the eastern footpath on Laurens Street, between Arden and Queensberry streets and installing new kerbing
- These works will involve non-destructive digging, saw cutting, excavating and installing new asphalt and kerbing.

What to be aware of

- Further sections of the eastern footpath on Laurens Street will be closed until late August
- A small section of the footpath will remain open to enable access to properties. Any temporary changes to access will be communicated directly with impacted properties prior to works occurring
- Pedestrian access will be maintained on the western side of Laurens Street
- The southbound bicycle lane on Laurens Street is closed between Arden and Queensberry streets and a detour is in place via Dryburgh Street
- Traffic management and signage will be in place to safely direct vehicles, cyclists, and pedestrians around the work site during construction
- These works are expected to generate periods of medium to high level noise and some vibration.

When

- 7am to 6pm Monday to Friday
- 7am to 1pm Saturdays.
